

This is some of the interesting coal industry related news we found today. Enjoy!

Coal to remain India's mainstay power generation fuel until 2040: Coal India : Coal will remain the mainstay fuel for power generation in India in the next two.

Allegiance Coal reports Telkwa stage 1 PFS results : Allegiance reports the results of the stage 1 pre-feasibility study and reviews the staged production PFS for the Telkwa metallurgical coal project in Canada.

Op-Ed: Wind Industry Lifts South Dakota : Watertown Public Opinion: There are few greater economic development opportunities in rural America right now than wind power. Across the country, wind farms are providing a stable source of new revenue...read more

West Virginia Reconsiders Its Permit for 300-Mile Mountain Valley Pipeline : Charleston Gazette: Faced with a deadline to defend their permit approval against a federal court challenge, West Virginia regulators moved this week to back off their certification that the Mountain ...read more

Turnbull comments on AGL meeting 'Trumpean showmanship': Cousins : Malcolm Turnbull's trumpeting over yesterday's meeting with AGL boss Andy Vesey is just "Trumpean showmanship", former prime ministerial adviser and business veteran Geoff Cousins says.

CNX Coal cuts 303 workers at Bailey mine as it awaits permit decision : CNX Coal has reduced the workforce at its Bailey Mine by 303 employees while it.

India's coal plants ran at a year high in 2016, nuclear output fell 17% and utilization at coal-fired stations rose to 58% in August, compared with 51.6% a year ago, as per the latest power ministry data

Coal Miners: Why the Weak Dollar Matters : One analyst explores how the weak dollar could impact coal producers in the U.S. and internationally.

'Grave': New study finds significant impacts of coal mining in Sydney catchment : An independent study has found unexpected valley bulging and fractures reaching the surface above a major coal mine in the greater Sydney catchment, prompting WaterNSW to seek greater scrutiny of future mining applications.

Sindh govt announces compensation for Thar Coal Block II victims - The Express Tribune : Announcement was made at ceremony marking 50% completion of project

Power plants step up buying natural gas after coal shortage : These plants, where Rs 1.24 lakh crore has already been invested, operated at a mere 22.51 per cent plant load factor, producing 49 billion units of electricity, in 2016-17.

Numsa union demands 15% wage hike in coal sector : The National Union of Metalworkers of South Africa (Numsa) has demanded Glencore raise coal mining wages by 15%, Numsa said on Tuesday, almost triple the inflation rate ...

The government has this MP right where they want him in the coal debate : Joel Fitzgibbon, in Malcolm Turnbull's estimation, is emblematic of Labor's dilemma.

Canadian processing plant begins operations : The coal handling, preparation and processing plant in Nova Scotia is now operational.

Strong overseas demand for Australia coal deprives local utilities of fuel : Strong Asian demand for coal from Australia is depriving domestic power generators of fuel and driving electricity prices higher, energy providers and mining sources said.

Adani gets to work on 170MW solar farm in Queensland coal country : Company behind plans to develop Australia's largest coal mine begins work on 170MW solar plant in another Queensland coal hub.

Malcolm, Josh Grow Up, Kill the Renewable Energy Target & Go Nuclear : When I was a child, I used to speak like a child, think like a child, reason like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things. Australians are fast growing up to the fact that run...

The true cost of keeping the Liddell power station open : Government payments to keep Australia's oldest coal plant running would amount to a carbon subsidy. It's worth looking at the financial — and carbon — cost.

The coal club can huff and puff but it's too late to blow the renewable house down | Peter Lewis : The message from the public is clear: they just want the government to retake control of an energy market that has ceased to serve their interest

AGL 'speaks with forked tongue' on future of Liddell power plant : A Liberal backbencher accuses AGL of speaking with a forked tongue after appearing to rule out breathing new life into the Liddell coal-fired power station.

PM accused of bullying AGL boss over future of Liddell power station : Labor's Joel Fitzgibbon accuses the Prime Minister of bullying AGL head Andy Vesey in a bid to force the energy giant to keep the Liddell power station open or sell it to another company.

Most Australians want government to regulate power prices – Guardian Essential poll : Poll shows 81% support for more investment in renewables, as Labor remains ahead on a two-party preferred basis, at 54% to the Coalition's 46%

Coalition to allow government-backed loans to coalmines as banks hesitant : Government backing for mines, which could potentially include the Adani Carmichael project, comes as banks under pressure from activist groups

Alberta sets up fund to help communities during coal phase-out transition : Alberta has set up a new grant program for communities looking to boost business as the province moves away from coal.

LCResources is a division of Leigh Campbell Pty Ltd (ABN 64 076 477 024) www.lcresources.com.au ph : 61 0417 761458 mail: tony@lcresources.com.au

West Virginia Gov. Jim Justice signs law that would allow coal miners to sue the state for coal. at any cost: West Virginia Gov. Jim Justice signs law
Central Appalachian coal — it's largely how he made his fortune after all. What is less clear whether Justice is thinking about Central Appalachian people or the future of the region.Read more >

For energy security, the failing Liddell coal plant is the last thing we need | Ben Oquist : Confusion reigns over whether the government will, or can, keep the ageing power station going. But there's a much better way to ensure grid reliability

Adani's mine is a black hole for brands : It's not every day the boss needs to justify a successful bid to their staff.

Poland to treat coal addiction by embracing nuclear power : Poland's ongoing large-scale investment in three new coal-fired power plants may be the country's last fossil fuel venture, its energy minister said on Wednesday (6 September), indicating a possible energy shift in the EU's largest eastern member amid revived plans to embrace nuclear power.